Hidden in Plain Sight:

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Tuesday February 20 at 7p

Speaker: Debbie Shinskie

Our Lady of Lourdes Church
400 Westchester Blvd, Slidell

CHURCH TEACHING:

Catechism of the Catholic Church 2414
The seventh commandment forbids acts or enterprises that for any reason - selfish or ideological, commercial, or totalitarian - lead to the enslavement of human beings, to their being bought, sold and exchanged like merchandise, in disregard for their personal dignity. It is a sin against the dignity of persons and their fundamental rights to reduce them by violence to their productive value or to a source of profit. St. Paul directed a Christian master to treat his Christian slave "no longer as a slave but more than a slave, as a beloved brother, . . . both in the flesh and in the Lord."

PRAYER:

Christ has no body but yours,
 No hands,
 No feet on earth but yours,
 Yours are the eyes with which He looks with compassion on
 this world,
 Yours are the feet with which
 He walks to do good,
 Yours are the hands, with which He blesses all the world.
 Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes,
 you are His body.
 Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

SAINT OF THE MONTH

St. Josephine Bakhita – February 8

St. Josephine Bakhita was born in Sudan in 1869 and enslaved as a child. Eventually she was sold to an Italian diplomat and taken to Italy, where she was later brought to freedom through the help of the Conossian Daughters of Charity. Through their guidance, she learned about God and served him faithfully until her death in 1947. In October 2000, she was canonized by Pope John Paul II, at which point he noted that “in St. Josephine Bakhita we find a shining advocate of genuine emancipation. The history of her life inspires not passive acceptance, but the firm resolve to work effectively to free girls and women from oppression and violence, and to return them to their dignity in the full exercise of their rights” (St. Bakhita’s Canonization Mass, October 1, 2000).

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Migration and Refugee Services, Publication No. M7-266

St. Josephine Bakhita,

You were sold into slavery as a child and endured untold hardship and suffering. Once liberated from your physical enslavement, you found true redemption in your encounter with Christ and his Church. O St. Bakhita, assist all those who are trapped in a state of slavery. Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity. Those whom man enslaves, let God set free. Provide comfort to survivors of slavery and let them look to you as an example of hope and faith. Help all survivors find healing from their wounds. We ask for your prayers and intercessions for those enslaved among us. Amen.
